After a year
of Zoom calls and too much time indoors, it's time to hit the green, catch up with friends, and support the future of the construction industry!

All funds raised at the ECI Golf Tournament will benefit the Aims Foundation's construction trades scholarship. This charitable arm of Aims Community College helps offset expenses for the next generation of construction leaders. Our tournament sponsors not only help build a brighter future for Colorado's construction industry, but they also receive numerous benefits, including day-of signage, digital exposure, and media recognition.
